DURBIN

Might Be Compelled To Surrender Taylor and Finley.

Ralph Gregory, the leading criminal lawyer of Northeastern Indiana, has unseated a statute which, if put in force, will compel Gov. Durbin to surrender to the Kentucky authorities the persons of Gov. Taylor and former Secretary of State Finley.

The statute is embodied in Burns' Revision of 1901; Sections 1674 b and c.

It is specified that whenever one who shall have been indicted for a criminal offense in any state of the Union is within the borders of Indiana, any one may cause a justice of the peace or hearse the Circuit Court and swear out a warrant for the arrest of the person charged; that after the Governor of the State of Indiana shall have been notified of such warrant he shall cause the arrest of each individual and then notify the Governor of the Commonwealth in which the crime has been committed and surrender such individual to the accredited officers of said Commonwealth.

Under this statute Gov. Durbin would have no choice but to surrender to the Kentucky authorities the persons of Taylor and Finley. Mr. Gregory has called the attention of a number of leading lawyers of Delaware county to the statute and they all agree that it exactly fits the case of Taylor and Finley. The reason that this statute has hitherto escaped notice is that it is indexed improperly in the revision.

Would Fight.

James H. Hayes, the negro who has been retained by the negroes of Virginia to test the Disfranchisement Laws of Virginia, made a very inflammatory speech at a meeting of the Afro-American Council, recently held in Richmond. Among other things, he said: "There is nothing in Virginia for the negro degradation, unless the negroes make a firm stand, contend for their rights, and, if necessary, die for them. I am not an anarchist, and I don't mean to get out and kill anybody, but to let somebody else kill you." This veiled rally provoked loud applause and laughter. In Virginia you are Jim Crow. You opened the meeting to night singing "My Country, 'Tis of thee," but I wonder how negroes sing that song. For myself, I am a man without a country. The me has come when the negro must fight, not theoretically, but fight with his hands. The disfranchisement for the children of Israel has been followed either for letter by the disfranchisement in the South." Exchange.

Not Alone.

Louisville is the cleanest city this side of Jefferson town. During the busy season a man can go anywhere in the city, provided he has a canoe or a ferry-boat. The mud is neverally more than two or three inches deep on the streets. We certainly ought to congratulate ourselves on having such clean streets. Were it not for our brilliant street lights, which can be seen thirty or forty feet away, pedestrians might fall into a pond of water and be suddenly drowned. We are having prosperous times, so that the tax eaters might levy a few more cents for street cleaning, and still have the tax-payers able to pay their taxes, provided they live economically.

There are other cities with streets just like ours.

True charity begins at home, but doesn't end there.

THE PLAN

For Democratic Primary Adopted by Committee.

The following is the call for Democratic primary on May 9, which was issued Saturday by the Democratic State Executive Committee: To the Democratic Executive Committee: Your subcommittee appointed to arrange for the details of the primary election, called for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for all State offices to be held at the November election, 1908, would most respectfully report as follows.

First—That a primary election be held for the purpose above designated in each and every voting precinct throughout the Commonwealth on the 9th day of May, 1903, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., standard time, and that said election be held under the State primary election law.

Second—That in said primary all known Democrats of lawful age, and all Democratic youths who will be of lawful age on the 3d day of November, 1908, shall be entitled to vote.

Third—That in cities where registration is required the registration used at the last general election shall be used in this primary, and all those registered as Democrats shall be entitled to vote in this primary, and in addition to those registered all Democrats residing in the precinct, who for any cause failed to register at the last general registration, and all Democrats who have moved into the precinct since the last registration, and all Democratic youths who will be of lawful age on November 3, 1903, shall be entitled to register with the officers of the election in their respective districts, and upon taking an oath that they will be lawful voters in said precinct at the November election, 1908, shall be entitled to vote in this primary, and the officers of election in each precinct in cities where registration is required shall preserve the record of all voters who have registered with them as above provided.

Fourth—That the officers of election shall be appointed by the Democratic County Committee through out the Commonwealth, and shall in each county be apportioned among the contesting candidates as nearly equal as can be done. In case the local committee in any county fails or refuses to act and appoint the officers of election as above provided, or in the event that complaint is made to this committee that the officers of election as appointed by the said local County Committee are not apportioned among the contesting candidates as above provided, or are not suitable or fair officers, then this committee has the right to hear and determine said complaint, and if it is well founded, then this committee has the right to take charge of and appoint the officers of election in all such counties where the local Democratic committee fails or refuses to act, or where complaint made is found to be well founded, and appoint the officers of election as above provided.

Fifth—That upon the application to the local County Committee by any candidate or his friends, he shall be permitted to have a challenge at the polls in each precinct, and an inspector of the count of the ballots in each precinct in said county; but said committee shall not be required to appoint more than five inspectors of the count for any one precinct.

Sixth—It shall be the duty of the officers of election in each and every voting precinct throughout the State, at the close of the polls, to count the ballots cast in their respective precincts, and to certify to the Democratic County Committee of their county the result of the vote in detail, giving to each candidate the number of votes received by him in their precinct and to transmit with their certificate and the ballot stubs, all questioned ballots as the law directs, to the County Committee.

Seventh—It shall be the duty of the Democratic County Committee to meet at the county seat in their respective counties on the 12th day of May, 1903, and tabulate the result of the election in their respective counties as certified by the officers of election in the various voting precincts in their county, and to pass upon all questioned ballots returned to them by the precinct officers, and to certify to the chairman of the Democratic Committee at Frankfort, Ky., the number of votes cast in their respective counties for each candidate for office before said primary not later than May 20, 1903.

Eighth—It shall be the duty of the Democratic Executive Committee to meet in Frankfort, Ky., on the 30th day of May, 1903, and tabulate the result of the election in the various counties for the various offices as certified by the local Democratic County Committees, and to declare that candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast for the office for which he is candidate, the Democratic nominee for that office, and to certify the same to the Secretary of State, as the law directs.

Ninth—It shall be the duty of the precinct officers of election to preserve the ballots and to transmit them to the County Democratic Committee of their respective counties, to be preserved by them, as the law directs.

Tenth—The County Committee shall appoint the officers of election herein provided for, not less than twenty days before the date of the election, and shall cause a list of same to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in their counties not later than the week following their appointment, if such newspaper is published therein, and to have them properly notified of their appointment as such, as the law directs. If the local committee fails or refuse to make the appointments by the time fixed herein, then this committee shall at once make such appointments and shall cause the same to be published, and the officers of election notified as above directed.

Eleventh—All Democrats desiring to become candidates for State offices before said primary shall in writing notify the chairman of this committee of such intentions, and shall state in such written notice the office for which he desires to be a candidate, not later than April 1, 1903, and upon the receipt of such notice it shall be the duty of the chairman to at once notify the candidate of the assessment, he is required to pay in order to entitle him to have his name placed upon the ballot as a candidate for the office to which he aspires, and in the event of failure or refusal of any one desiring to become a candidate before said primary, to make known such intention or desire on or before the date above designated, and to pay the assessment assessed against him as above provided, on or before the 9th day of April, 1903, then the name of such candidate shall not be printed upon the ballot.

The assessment for the various offices is fixed as follows:
For office of Governor.....$2,500
For the office of Lieut. Gov. 600
For the office of Att'y. Gen'l. 1,800
For the office of Auditor..... 2,200
For the office of Sec'y of State 1,800

In the event that a candidate for any office above named should have no opposition, then he is required to pay the entire assessment fixed for that office, and in the event there is more than one candidate for any of the above named offices, the assessment for that particular office is to be equally apportioned among the candidates for such office, i. e., if there is only one candidate for any given office, say that of Treasurer, then he shall be assessed the full $1,800, and in the event there are two candidates, they shall each be assessed $900, and in the event there are three candidates, they shall each be assessed $600, and so on. In the event there is a surplus remaining after defraying all expenses of said primary, it shall be returned to those by whom it was paid, in the same proportion in which it was paid by them, and in the event the expenses of said primary are greater than $16,000, then the cost thereof over and above said sum is to be paid by the successful candidates in the same proportion in which they were assessed, and it is the duty of the Local County Committee in each county to certify to the chairman of the State Central and Executive Committees at the same time that the official vote of the county is certified, the cost of said primary in their respective counties.

Twelfth—As necessity may arise, subcommittee is authorized to adopt such rules and regulations and do all acts and things as from time to time may become necessary, to insure the faithful and fair conduct of said primary, not inconsistent with the primary election law of this State or with the report here submitted.

Thirteenth—Before entering upon the discharge of their duties the officers of election shall be sworn as the law directs, and their duties and responsibilities shall be precisely the same as those of legally appointed and regularly qualified officers of regular State elections.

Fourteenth—As the present party organization was chosen in 1900 for one year, it is the assessment of this committee that no convention need be held during this year, and that the party organization, as at present constituted should stand till the convention is called to send delegates to the National Convention in 1904.

Fifteenth—That a copy of this report shall be printed and posted at the court house door in each county in this Commonwealth and that at least twenty copies shall be furnished to the local County Committees in each county in the Commonwealth, to be sent by them in their respective counties, not less than forty days before the date of said primary, to wit: May 9, 1903. That all Democratic and other newspapers throughout the State who will publish the same are requested to do so, in order that this primary shall be given as much publicity as possible.

THE RAMBLER.

Who and Otherwise, Mostly Unwritten. Record, Randomly STOLEN.

SO THEY SAY.

A young man in this city one day, Was very suspiciously gay;
There are people who think He was given to drink,
But the fact is it's only his way.

An Ohio newspaper has alluded to that State as the "Incubator of Presidents." But it must be remembered that nearly every incubator hatch contains a large number of spoiled eggs.

The report comes from Indian Territory that the local option law there is rigidly enforced, and not one nip of "skidewaho" can be obtained for hooping purposes. In fact it's so "dry" that the frogs can't croak, and the farmers have to soak their swine in the creek twenty-four hours before they will hold slop.

The other morning we went to the restaurant to order breakfast. As we entered we noticed a gentleman sitting at the table who seemed to be meditating as to what he would tell the waiter to bring him. Presently we introduced ourselves as "Mr. Rambler." We learned the dusky gentleman was from an Eastern Ky. county.

"Mr. Rambler," he said, "you fellows haint goin' to hav' a circus show in town any ways soon are you?"

"None that I have heard of," we answered.

"When did the last circus-show show here?"

"Some time ago."

"How long 'go'?"

"I don't remember the date."

"What was his name?"

"The World-Famed Amalgamated Association of Unoppressed Snake Eaters."

"O yes!" nodding his head, "I seed them air here in town once durin' the road fair. They shor' em."

At this juncture the waiter rushed up and handed "Mr. Man" the bill of fare. It happened that Dan had leased the off-side of it to a local carriage dealer who placed an "ad" thereon, with illustrations. "Mr. Man" sat at the table. The waiter, being in a hurry, by mistake passed the bill with the "ad" side up. "Mr. Man" saw the wheels, put on his spectacles, curled his mustache with his left finger, straightened up, looked at the waiter and said:

"If I bug scrambled eggs, a Bangor buggy, a couple of runabouts and a road cart. Got any wheel-harrows?"

The waiter flew, and Mr. Rambler disappeared.

THE PUZZLE.—We are asked most every day, "When you going to insert that puzzle?" Well, we will present it just as soon as we can get it in shape. The picture artist, in placing the objects, got them somewhat mixed, so we are now waiting on him to make the proper corrections.

One of our readers grew so impatient over the puzzle that he could not restrain from reminding us in the following brief note:

"Dear Mr. Rambler: You ask some one to find the picture puzzle. I found a horse, so thought I would send my guess."

We do not understand the meaning. Perhaps the person was attacked by a "nightmare," as the mind seems to have been running in a horse strain.

WORDS WELL SPOKEN

AGAINST CRIME.

The city of Louisville is beginning to realize that something must be done to suppress the lawlessness, especially murder, in that city. On the 4th page of this issue is an article, "Want General Crusade Conducted Throughout the State," which every citizen should read. The following from the Evening Post of Thursday, Feb. 5, so thoroughly express our opinion and set forth the need of their enforcement in many, if not all, counties of our state, that we are pleased to give them to our readers:

We do not suppose that any thoughtful person has any disposition whatever to hold that all homicide is murder. What the people desire, what they have a right to expect, what the laws require is prompt and thorough investigation into all crime, the incarceration of criminals, the trial of all men accused, full investigation of all acts, and impartial hearing of all evidence before juries impartially selected.

One must be blind indeed to recent history in the city of Louisville and the State of Kentucky to object to the "recent complaints of the prevalence in this community of deeds of blood."

One only has to follow the records of the police in the Criminal Court, one has but to walk the streets of Louisville to see that the vindication given the police force Tuesday by the Judge is not deserved. Every officer of the police force is sworn especially to enforce the law against gambling in all of its forms, and yet gambling prevails in this city under every form and by means of every device. The complaint made of the inefficiency of the police, the complaint that instead of aiding them at times thwart the State in its efforts to secure evidence, is a complaint that comes from the Prosecuting Attorney of the City Court, Mr. Hagan. It is sustained, moreover, by the frequent dismissals in the Circuit Court of indictments that have been obtained through the testimony of the police, indictments being dismissed because the witnesses for the State do not appear and are not compelled to appear.

But Judge Caruth, while minimizing the evils of murder, magnifies the evils of carrying concealed deadly weapons. A deadly weapon as long as it is concealed is harmless. The law forbids the carrying of these weapons. Men violate the law for different reasons: Some because they have a contempt for the law; another class because they have no confidence in the law's protection, and they carry arms that they may protect themselves.

It is an evil of great proportions, but the existence of this practice is an indictment of the courts of the State, an indictment of the police officers of the State and city. Men do not carry pistols as a rule for pleasure. If they were enforced the law would be enforced men of violence would not carry weapons and men of peace would not recognize any necessity for carrying weapons.

The carrying of weapons is a mere incident and an evidence of the prevalence of graver crimes in this community. If men were rigidly punished for using these weapons, if they were punished severely, according to the code, for murder and manslaughter; if, instead of being vindicated by Coroner's juries and examining courts and petit juries, they were imprisoned and fined or hanged, we would stop altogether the practice of carrying weapons, concealed or openly.

A STRONG CANDIDATE.

The Kentucky Irish American, a paper published at Louisville, Ky., and which enjoys a weekly circulation of 10,000 copies throughout the State, in a recent issue has the following to say concerning our candidate for Clerk Court of Appeals:

"W. B. O'Connell, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., is an avowed candidate for Clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. O'Connell is at present chief deputy of the County Court Clerk's office of Montgomery county. He has friends in every section of the State. He is an Irish American, who takes a prominent part in all Irish-American affairs in this section of the country. Mr. O'Connell has the energy, ability and intelligence to make a splendid Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and deserves the support of not only all Irish-Americans, but of all Democrats who want to see a capable clerk elected. His nomination will add great strength to the ticket."

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

The Writer Attends a Prayer Meeting and a Banquet in Winchester.

On Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5, 1903 the writer went to Winchester to attend the first annual banquet of the Winchester Commercial Club. In a barber shop we heard some one refer to the prayer meeting at the Methodist church that evening in honor of Dr. Savage. On Monday, Feb. 2, this distinguished gentleman had celebrated his 90th birthday, being entertained with 15 gentlemen friends at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brooks. In the evening some ladies entertained him. Among the presents was a large cake ornamented with 90 candles. Another surprise was in store for him at the prayer meeting. We, when a lad in the mountains, had known the Doctor and gladly availed ourselves of the opportunity to attend such a meeting. The pastor of the congregation is Rev. J. R. Savage, nephew of the Doctor.

When the Doctor came to the church he was informed about the meeting and was asked to take part. He read and expounded the 23d Psalm: "The Lord is my Shepherd, etc." The songs were "All hail," "What a friend," and "My faith." Prayer by Rev. Froh and Prof. Weber.

Words of congratulation and praise of this venerable servant of the Lord were spoken by Rev. Frances of the Cumberland Presbyterian church; Rev. Bailey of the Baptist church; Prof. Weber, of Ky. Wesleyan; Rev. Froh and J. R. Savage, of the Methodist church. We were pleased with the words of appreciation so frank and sincere spoken in the presence of him whom they had known and loved. Why wait till a man is dead to tell of his worth, of the joy he has given, of his excellencies of character? Throw into his life some sunshine and cheer. One modest flower of varied beauty, one inhalation of rare perfume, one word of merited praise is better for the living and brings more joy than whole wreaths, vases and orations for and over the dead, when their senses respond not to our good intent.

The doctor briefly referred to the many years spent by him in behalf of the American Bible Society. The distance traveled by him in the work has been more than twenty circuits of the globe. He has visited every county and county seat (except one each) in the two States, Kentucky and Tennessee. He has never met with an accident or received a mark or bruise upon his person, traveling in day or night, storm, rain, sleet and mud. This to him was marvelous.

"How firm a foundation!" and the benediction by Dr. Savage closed this helpful service. As neither of the local papers was represented, we refer them to this article if they wish to use any of it.

THE BANQUET

It was held at the Rees House, over which W. H. Boswell presides with eminent satisfaction to his guests. The ornamentation of the banquet hall and the service were quite attractive, the menu and service were first class, the association pleasing and elevating. Eighty-six guests were present. In addition to the local representation were: Judge Ed. C. O'Rear, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals; Mr. Brent Arnold, of Cincinnati, Supt. L. & N. railroad; Mr. R. W. Knott, editor Louisville; Mr. J. Lawrence Dailam, of the Louisville Board of Trade; Mr. A. Mitchell, Jr., of the C. & O. railroad; Chas. Scott, of the L. & E. Lexington. Rev. Cecil Armstrong, pastor of the Christian Church, attracted thanks to the giver of all blessings; Judge W. M. Beckner, as toast-master, is not a novice, but has seen much service in the far distance.

Some of the responses could have been abbreviated without detracting from their merit, yet every speech was to us interesting, and each called forth hearty applause. Concerning this and other menus we remark that a guest does not have to eat everything set before him. Discretion is sometimes the better part—if he wishes to avoid headache, restlessness and nightmare.

If our own comfort had been the only one considered, there would have been no cigars, for to us the banqueting in all its forms is injurious. But the pleasure and comfort of the many must not be sacrificed for one or a few who may be of peculiar taste.

The only thing that revealed the presence or use of spirits of any kind, either in the hotel lobby or the banquet hall was a small quantity of liquid in the Roman punch. This we did not take. Of one thing we are thoroughly convinced and to it we are grateful: That many, i. e. it is possible for about 100 business men to assemble at and partake of a banquet without there being any drunkenness, debauch, profanity or vulgarity, or the use of intoxicants.

We do not claim to have seen and heard EVERYTHING, but so far as our observation went we saw or heard nothing that would offend Christian gentlemen.

We would that more of the public functions were so conducted. Perhaps some men will learn some day.

The meeting was pronounced a success, and we hope will be of permanent value in furthering the desires and plans of the Commercial interests and development of our neighboring town.

REV. TIBBS

Land of Canaan. Letter En Route.

(No. 1.)

NEW YORK CITY, Feb 7, '03.

DEAR JUDGE: Again I am starting to the land of Canaan. The gracious hands that sent me forth last year are resting now, folded on a painless breast; the glad lips that greeted my return, are sealed in silence beneath the white roof of her quiet house. He that gave her that precious talent of flesh, has clothed her anew with the better robes of Paradise. He that allotted to her the task of earth so well fulfilled, now gives her sweet surcease of toil, and the new delights of labors that bring neither weariness nor toll. He that gave you a dutiful child, and me an idle wife, has been pleased to grant us some knowledge of His will and ways, and a faith that waits with cheerful acquiescence and walks with joyful compliance. It does not grieve us, therefore, that she has outrun us in the race for the heavenly goal and rests triumphant in the celestial haven while we are tossed a little longer on the heaving billows of life's vicissitudes. I think she knows, and is pleased that by the grace of her own beloved child I am permitted again to walk in the earthly footsteps of the "Son of Man," while she explores with Him the wonders of the New Jerusalem.

Now for the great ship and the sweet, wide sea: You will be curious to know something of our cargo—especially the fuel supply. I have not obtained the statistics of our present cruise, but will give you a few items about the Celtic in which I sailed a year ago. Six thousand one hundred and sixty bushels of coal were required for each day's run—about four hundred and sixty-two thousand bushels for the round trip—or six hundred car loads. This gives a regular force equal to fourteen thousand and horses harnessed to wagons on a good road. The screws that propelled us were attached to two steel shafts each twenty inches in diameter and two hundred and ten feet long. We had but seventy-five engines.

One million gallons of fresh water, 90,000 pounds of beef, 50,000 pounds of potatoes, thousands of chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, birds, fresh fish and vegetables, and everything else you ever saw on a dining table except the opusculum.

The ship has 9 decks or stories. A tour around all the decks is more than 2 miles long. To manage the ship and passengers require a crew of 425 men—counting the stewards—es as men. The passengers numbered 890. After locating these passengers one could have found places aboard this vast ship for every legal voter in Mt. Sterling; together with the contents of every grocery, wholesale and retail, dry goods stores, coal yards, saloons, etc. After having disposed of Mt. Sterling on one of the decks, there would be plenty of room for Winchester, including Col. Tom McElwain and S. P. Kerr with the great mill, and R. R. Perry with the postoffice and his newspaper—gentlemen who would multiply the pleasures of any cruise. Then we could accommodate the Advocate office, men, wives, children, machinery, stock and building.

I once crossed the Atlantic on the Celtic with 3,000 people, and often the lower decks looked lonely. We anchored near some of the largest battleships afloat, and they were dwarfed by the side of the Celtic.

Sit down here with me on the pier and watch the excited tourists embark. They seem to be afraid the ship will slip away from them, although the gang for visitors to go ashore will not sound for an hour. That imposing personality you, with auburn locks, florid face and high-cut ministerial garb trying to quarrel with a sailor, is a D.D. He has been worrying over his luggage for half an hour, and is mad. I mockingly offered him a little advice which he tossed back with August resentment, remarking that he would not submit to be robbed by those thieves after having paid for his passage in advance. He will be three days finding his luggage after the ship sails. Mine will be neatly piled up in my room when the last rope is cast off. I just slipped a handsome young sailor on the back, slipped twenty-five cents into his hand and said "Jack, I am going with you. Take care of all this luggage marked stateroom 338." "You'll find it there in a few minutes," said Jack. He called two other sailors and loaded a truck with it at once. It will be there and whatever I call for will come. My ignominious ministerial friend will suffer much in mind and body, but will finally ask my help with some humility—and I will take care of him.

But the question in the minds of most of my friends is in reference to THE EXPENSE.

I admit that the same matter has touched the borders of my mind occasionally when contemplating a journey of fourteen thousand miles. Here is the list:

Stateroom from New York and return, including hotel—first class—carriage, railroads, small boats, camels, mules, donkeys, guides and interpreters—$475.00.

In addition to the regular itineraries in Asia Minor and Palestine, I take a side trip by rail to Ephesus—$4.00. Through Gallilee, and boats on the Sea of Galilee—$35.00.

To Jericho, Dead Sea and Jordan—$12.00. To Hebron and Cave of Machpelah—$4.00.

For tips—$25.00. This latter item is indispensable for comfort and style. The man who tries to dispense with it on such an enterprise as this will come home worn, battered and dissatisfied—feeling mean; and he merits it all.

Passport with Turkish visa—$2. Teakens for interior Turkish excursions—$1.60. Steamer reclining chair for use on deck, $1.50. These items exclusive of tip fund foot up about $535.10.

I hope to write again about one thousand miles east from New York, and mail it at Gibraltar which I have arranged to capture about ten days from present date—February 17th, 8 a.m.

Mental Strain Affected General Health.

Doctor's Doses Weakened Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out with the cares and anxieties of the sick room. Read the following letter from a man who has been cured of a nervous condition by Dr. Miles' Nervine. "I have always been healthy with the exception of a touch of rheumatism since my wife came on up to the time of my husband's last illness some years ago. I assisted in nursing my husband for nearly three months when he departed this life and the mental strain I think caused my trouble. Aside from extreme nervousness my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which weakened me very much and my stomach for a time seemed inactive. Mental strain and the dormant condition of my stomach soon told upon my general health. I had little appetite and was soon forced to stay in bed a greater part of the time. Within a week after the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic I was up about the house. I continued their use until completely cured. My faith in Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has been strengthened by experience of other people, our daughter having been cured of a case of paralysis and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills reports that she has been completely cured of neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a large degree. I wish you continued success."—Mrs. F. A. COOPER, Dayton, O.

Rescued from Suffering and Death by PAINE'S Celery Compound THE GREAT MEDICINE.

MR. ALFRED BROWN, A Prominent and Popular Citizen, Says: "After the Use of Paine's Celery Compound, I Am Now in the Best of Health."

The greatest of modern physicians, Prof. Edward K. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., after years of long practice and close scientific study, gave to suffering and diseased men and women his marvelous, life giving prescription, with the conviction and positive knowledge that it had peculiar virtues and ample powers to cure.

Thousands of the strongest testimonials from the best known and most reliable men and women of our country fully sustain the claims made by Dr. Phelps regarding his incomparable Paine's Celery Compound.

One of the most convincing proofs furnished, comes recently from a gentleman widely known in the capital city of the Dominion of Canada. We refer to Mr. Alfred Brown, 91 O'Connor St., Ottawa, Ont., Mr. Brown's letter fully demonstrates the fact that the greatest sufferer may cast off his or her burden of disease and become well, strong, and happy.

It proves, too, that the great medicine contains more fully than ever before its unrivaled place in the estimation of people of wealth and social standing as well as with the masses. Mr. Brown says:—

"I acknowledge with thankfulness and pleasure the fact that I have been cured of a very painful illness of eight years' standing by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. I had, during the years of my illness, tried almost all the celebrated medicines without deriving any good results. I was also treated by several of the best doctors of this city, hoping to find that one of them, at least, would understand my case.

"I was getting weaker, and was told I was incurable. I was unable to do a thing, as I was liable to sudden collapse. I tried hospital treatment, but to no relief or good results came to me. I could not sleep; anything that I ate increased my agony. I was extremely weak, restless, tired, and dependent; was obliged to walk about with my hands pressed firmly into my left side to ease my pains; my feet and hands were cold; continually had inclination to vomit, had profuse, cold sweats, quick breathing, and would be racked with pain for hours at a time.

"After the regular use of Paine's Celery Compound for a month, I am now in the best of health, have good appetite, and can use any kind of food. Thank God I am my old self once more, all through the use of Paine's Celery Compound."

The Sharpsburg crowd stormed the Misses Shroat at their home three miles East of Sharpsburg Friday night. Forty-three young ladies and gentlemen were present, but the Misses Shroat proved themselves equal to the occasion. Refreshments were served and all spent a most pleasant evening. The Misses Shroat, who formerly lived here, are very popular in that community, which they justly deserve to be.

Rich Mineral Find on Farm Lands Near Millersburg.

Lead has been found on the farm of John F. Caldwell and John R. Taylor and Robert Miers. Cincinnati Capitalists were at Millersburg and negotiated for the mineral rights on these three farms. Two weeks ago a very fine vein was discovered on the farm of John Purdy, about three miles distant from the above farms. Chicago capitalists are after this lease.

Get Children Started Right

Measles, scarlet fever, mumps and whooping cough are universally prevalent.

With all these, the disease itself is often trivial, but the after effects are very serious.

Close observers say that one-half the people suffer from eye trouble (result of measles), or bronchial, ear, or kidney trouble (result of other diseases of childhood).

Now a child in robust health will throw off these diseases. A weak ailing child will probably suffer all its life.

We have just the medicine for puny, ailing children. It is Vinol. It is pleasant to take, it is free from dangerous drugs, it is nourishing and gently tonic, it helps the food to digest and gives strength.

It has been used in this town with great success when children were slow in getting over whooping cough and measles.

It seems to give them a start, and they become bright and healthy. Used with Vinolax, the bowel regulator, it is safe and sure, both for ailing children and burdened mothers. Take home a bottle on our guarantee of money back if it's not good. Don't let your little ones remain weak and ailing.

Mr. G. M. Myers, the well-known shoemaker of Winchester avenue and 14th street, Ashland, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are like true friends, the longer you know them the better they are appreciated. I can add nothing to the statement I first made in 1896 after I procured the remedy at the Ventura Drug Co., and took a course of the treatment, which cured me. I was absolutely free from all backache for nearly three years, then I noticed a slight ache, as the result of a cold, in my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of it. I have recommended this remedy to many, and have never heard of one who did not endorse the claims made for it."

Two New States.
Efforts to compromise in the Senate on the Statehood question are likely to meet with success in Washington, and the result will be, in the near future, the admission of two new States, one comprised of the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico, and the other of Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

CATTLE BARONS
To Lessen Government Land—Settlers Deprived of Rights.

The cattle barons appear to have friends at court who are helping them to perpetuate their monopoly of the Government lands in the Western States. A special dispatch from Omaha to the Washington Post says:

"The land-leasing bill, as now constructed was introduced into the Senate and House at the last session of Congress. Its advent created a furor of indignation in the Western States, and its effect on the approaching elections was the cause of the laying aside of the measure. Opponents of the measure denounce it as a glaring attempt to create a land monopoly in the Western States.

"It is proposed to lease for a period not exceeding 20 years any Government land remaining unsupplied for, at the rate of from one to six cents an acre per annum. The proposition on its face means the acquiring of a revenue by the Government from lands now unoccupied and seemingly worthless. The reality, it is claimed, will be an increasing annual draft on the Federal Treasury for cost of collection, the establishment of a large number of new fat offices, the control of immense areas of Western land, and the consequent prevention of settlement by industrious individuals, by a few great cattle and sheep-raising corporations, and the consequent absolute and unrestricted control of prices of meats by the land monopoly."

The dispatch further says: "Col. Mosby was rapidly informing the public of the actual facts when he was recalled."

As Col. Mosby was the special agent of the land department at Washington, and had been given orders to remove the wire fences the cattle barons had erected, his recall must mean that the administration has given up its fight against the cattle men.

The land-leasing bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Millard, of Nebraska, and in the House by Congressman Bowersock, of Kansas, and if passed by Congress will effectively perpetuate the hold the cattle barons have on the Government lands of the West, on their own terms.

The farmers of every State in the Union are directly interested in opposing the bills now before Congress, for they cannot compete with the price that beef cattle, sheep and wool can be produced in large herds on land for which no rent or interest is paid and upon which no taxes are assessed.

In the past the free range for cattle on the public lands was participated in by all droves, great or small, but in the last few years the large cattle companies have fenced in vast tracts of the public land and have therefore monopolized its use. The homestead seeker has during this time been gradually encroaching more and more on this public domain that the cattle barons have come to look upon as their own, and the result is the conflict now before the public and Congress.

The leasing of these public lands at the rate of from one to six cents an acre, or an average of three cents, is out of all proportion to their value and the collection will cost more than the Government will receive. There will be no protection for homesteaders, for the cattle barons would lease all the lands adjoining his homestead and shut him off from free range for his cattle and perhaps access to the rivers and streams, which are few and far apart on the plains.
The policy of the Government from the first has been to reserve the public lands for those who wish to make homes upon them, and its reversal by the present administration, in the interest of the cattle barons should be denounced by all Senators and Congressmen should be written to, demanding that the honest settler be protected and the cattle barons' fences be removed so that all can have free access to the public domain.

A PARABLE.
For the Public.

In the early springtime a certain man, whose name was Labor, planted seeds of grain in a field, the name of which was Opportunity.

Then Nature, who was Labor's mother, sent sunshine and warmth, the rain and the dew, and behold, the seeds sent forth tiny shoots, and the man Labor was exceeding glad.

The growing plants he nourished tenderly, like unto his own children; and in their youth he cherished them in Wealth and Capital.

Now, when another moon had passed, behold, certain strange plants grew in the field of Opportunity, and their name was Monopoly plants, though the man knew it not. For when the man Labor was a little fellow he went with other little fellows to a certain Rocky Feller's school, in which great and wise men taught the little fellows many strange and wondrous things.

Now it happened the wise men lived on Monopoly plants, and the great man who built the school—he, too, lived on the same strange food; and the Monopoly plants lived on the plants of Wealth and the Capital plants which the man Labor had planted.

So the wise men fooled the little feller, and taught them to call all plants in the field Opportunity, Wealth and Capital plants.

And it came to pass that to save his little soul the little feller knew not a Monopoly weed from a Capital plant. So when the man Labor beheld the Monopoly plants, which he had not planted, thriving among the Capital plants which he had planted, he was again exceeding glad.

Now it happened the Monopoly plants could not grow up into the sunshine without the help of the Capital plants; so the man Labor wound a Monopoly creeper round every Capital plant, and went away exceeding glad.

With another moon came again the man Labor to gather of the fruit of his labor; and behold, there was no fruit to gather, for the plants Monopoly had taken unto themselves the juices of the plants Wealth and Capital.

Now the man was filled with a great hate for Monopoly plants, and he cursed the wise men of his youth with a great curse, because they taught him all plants in the field of Opportunity were Capital plants. And he went with a great hoe into the field to cut down the strange plants which had eaten of the fruit of his labor.

The blindness of anger was upon the man Labor; and, behold, when the anger was gone, the Monopoly plants and the Capital plants were gone also, and there was no fruit for anyone.

Then the man Labor went away and thought a long think.

Unification of Churches Can Be Effected.

The Rev. J. Kinney Smith, pastor of the Fourth-avenue Presbyterian church, Louisville, preached on the "Union of the Churches From a Presbyterian Point of View" on Sunday night, Jan. 25. He called attention to the tendency in America of churches of the same denomination to get together. He rejoices in the spirit of Christian unity that is "in the air." I may be pardoned if, from a Presbyterian pulpit, I venture to say that the Presbyterians will have to be considered, consulted and heard before this programme of proposed denominational unification can be carried out.

Presbyterian Faith.

It would not be possible for the Presbyterian body to enter into any alliance or federation of churches in which these five constituent principles were not mutually accepted:

First—The Bible as the Word of God.

Second—The deity of Jesus Christ.

Third—The fundamental doctrines of the historic church as contained in the apostle's creed.

Fourth—Christian life and experience as a spiritual and penitential fact as distinguished from a purely ethical and moral experience.

Fifth—A large liberty in the matter of the government, discipline and worship of the several churches constituting this federative organization.

Presbyterians, could not work in any sort of corporate harmony with any body of Christians which does not accept the Scriptures as the inspired word of God. The Bible is the only charter and constitution of our church. It stands far above our Westminster Confession, our Presbyteries, Synods and Assemblies, and is for us our highest and final court of appeals.

We could not and would not go into any sort of ecclesiastical alliance with any set of persons, however morally well reputed, who would not be willing to accept as the primary basis of union the Bible, and the whole Bible, as the very authentic mind and purpose of the God of Revelation and Redemption.

Our denomination would demand as one of its most essential dogmas the deity of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is for us as He is and has always been to the greater part of the historic church—the God-Man.

The very lowest minimum of dogma which would content the churches with which our own is most closely co-ordinated is that contained in the Apostles' creed. To attempt to build a consolidated church on foundations less secure than this would be to build on quicksand.

Again, whatever system of ecclesiastical reconciliation and comprehension may be devised by the future must include, if our church is to be counted in, the recognition of a sacramental and penitential basis to Christian life and experience. We could feel at home in no organization in which we did not breathe in a common atmosphere of spiritual life. The two essential sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper must be carried over into the larger church, and with these the doctrine of the supernatural character of Christian experience. The church is not one ethical association, held together by a human sentiment; it is a living, divine body, separated from the life of the world, and constituting a community whose citizenship is in heaven.

Once more, it would require a very large latitude of mutual concession and individual right in matters of government, ritual and discipline in order to arrange any satisfactory or working scheme of corporate union. When Episcopalians are willing to give up the historic episcopate, and Methodists their itinerancy, and Baptists immersion and close communion, and Congregationalists their independency, and Presbyterians the parity of the ministerial office, we shall be able to discuss that more composite modus operandi in which the united church shall carry out its spirit of discipline and work and worship. For the present it would be as impossible to find this basis of executive and spiritual unity as to find a working basis for the political unity of the nations of the world. And the only possible way in which this scheme of ecclesiastical centralization could be at all accomplished would be to allow each present denomination to adhere to its own methods of self-expression and its own forms of devotion, which would leave them practically just where they are today.

Insurance Companies Rebuked.

Mayor Duncan, of Lexington, has issued a public letter in which he appeals to the City Council to take some steps to protect the people of Lexington from the extortionate rates imposed by the fire insurance companies doing business in that city. He says that the increase in rates has ranged from 33 to about 330 per cent. The situation must be serious.

About thirteen months ago there was an advance in this city of about 25 per cent, then in June there was another big advance, bringing the rate of 13 months ago from $15.56 on certain risks to more than $31. A protest reduced some risks from above $81 to $25.

Take Warning.

Senator Wellington on Saturday introduced an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the holding of a fortune exceeding $10,000,000 by any one individual in the United States. In case of such holding the amendment provides that the excess shall be condemned, whether or not as a public nuisance, public folly, or a public peril, and be accordingly forfeited to the United States treasury.

A Loafer sat on an empty dry goods box and whittled.

"You'll never win success that way," said the Boy's Father to the Boy.

A Successful Man happened along.

"I wish I could be as happy as that fellow is," said he, gazing wistfully at the Loafer.

But fortunately the Boy did not hear this, and the lesson of thrift and industry sank deep into his heart.—Life.

THELDFORD'S

BLACK-DRAUGHT

THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, distressing biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and lower bowels, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Thelford's Black-Draught never fails to bring the diseased liver and weakened kidneys back to health and to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reformed by Thelford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Thelford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Patent, 5,743, March 10, 1900. I have used Thelford's Black-Draught for three years and have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
